CATEGORY EVENTS

TALENT CONTEST: This Category is to be kept simple and stress free for the child.

GO GREEN COSTUME CONTEST: This category gives your child the opportunity to dig in and find something that they can re-use from what most of us would consider garbage. (Must be something that could be re-used or recycled)

LET'S PLAY DRESS UP: This category is as it states: Have your child dig into the old trunk or parents closet and pick out something to wear like Mommy or Daddy would wear.

KIDS SAY THE DARN-DEST THINGS: Each contestant will be asked an age appropriate question.

2011 3rd Annual Sherburne County Fair Tiny Tot Royalty Pageant

Rules:

In order to keep this pageant fun and stress free for the children we ask the following:

- ▲ Please, No make-up on the candidates.
- Costume make-up is allowed during the Costume Competition only, for all age groups.
- ▲ Candidate must be a resident of Sherburne County.
- ▲ Each child must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.
- ▲ Candidate along with one adult will receive a free pass to the Sherburne County Fair. This pass is valid for all four days. All other family and friends will be asked to pay normal admission.
- ▲ Pageant will be judged by retired seniors from the county. These judges are volunteers, and their decision is final.
- ▲ Candidates will be judged on the following: Poise, Style/Charm, Verbal Response and overall appearance.

Parent's/Guardians, We ask that you help your child understand the following;

- ▲ Candidate will be called onstage by age category.
- ▲ Candidates will participate in numerical order.
- ▲ Candidates should practice walking and turning.
- ▲ The Candidates will be brought to the center of the stage as a group. They will then exit the side stage and re-enter to the center as individuals when their name/number is called to compete in the category for that day.

Thank You!

We look forward to making this pageant enjoyable for your child and giving them the opportunity to represent the Sherburne County Fair next year!!!
